Welcome to this stunning five bedroom, three full and two half bath center hall colonial featuring original architectural details, while updated with many modern amenities. This stately home is situated on a corner property in the desirable Tuxedo Park neighborhood of South Orange. Just walking up the pathway to the entrance, you know you are visiting an important home. Guests are greeted by a front door with leaded glass windows on both sides. After passing through a small tiled vestibule, you are surrounded by gleaming Parquet wood floors with ribbon inlay throughout the home.

The front-to-back living room is distinguished by a decorative fireplace with marble surround and large crown moldings. The adjoining family room has a gas fireplace, built-in bookshelves and two walls of windows with lovely garden views. The formal dining room displays cove ceilings with picture molding, three windows overlooking the front yard and a French door that leads out to the large enclosed porch, perfect for summer dining. The updated kitchen features cherry cabinets, granite counters, walk-in pantry closet and stainless steel appliances, including a double oven and cooktop range. A few steps up to a convenient powder room.

Positioned on the second floor is the spacious front-to-back master bedroom and master bath with shower over tub. There are three additional bedrooms, an updated central bath with marble and stone tile walls, original stained glass window, frameless stall shower and contemporary vanity sink and commode.

Walk up to the third floor for bedroom five, full bath with soaking tub, deep cedar closet and attic storage.

The lower level offers a recreation room, powder room, large laundry, storage closets, utility/work room and door to backyard. In addition, there is a oversized two-car detached garage. The private side yard off the enclosed porch is perfect for enjoying all-season activities.
